BULLETIN.

CONSTANTINOPLE, by wireless to Berlin, May 26.—(1:45 a. m.)—The torpedoing of the Russian battleship Pantelimon by a Turkish submarine occurred in the Black Sea May 22nd, near the entrance to the Bosphorus.

LONDON, May 26.—(11:36 p. m.)—
The British battleship Triumph has been sunk in the Dardanelles.
This official announcement was made tonight.

The disaster to the Triumph is described in a brief statement by the admiralty, which says that while operating in support of the Australian and New Zealand forces on the shore of the Gallipoli peninsula yesterday the Triumph was torpedoed by a submarine and sank shortly afterwards.

The majority of the officers and men, including the captain and commander, are reported to have been saved. The submarine was chased by destroyers and patrolling small craft until dark.

The official announcement does not say whether the submarine was Turkish or German but it probably was of the latter nationality as the British legation at Athens recently offered a reward for the sinking of German submarines supposed to be in the Mediterranean.

Was Purchased From Chile.

The battleship Triumph was built at Barrow in 1902 for the Chilean government but was purchased by Great Britain in 1903. She was laid down under the name of Liberty and was a sister ship of the Constitution which also was purchased from Chile and re-christened Swiftsure. Since the war broke out the Triumph has been in operation in both far eastern and European waters. As flagship of the British Asiatic squadron she participated in the bombardment of the German base of Tsing-Tau, China, last October and was reported to have been damaged by the shell fire of the German forts.

After the fall of Tsing-Tau, the Triumph returned to European waters and early in the present year began operations with the other units of the allied fleet against the Dardanelles. In the latter part of April the Triumph bombarded the Turkish trenches on the western end of the Gallipoli peninsula and afterwards went into the Dardanelles to search the trench from a different angle.
Here she came under the fire of a Turkish howitzer battery on the Asiatic shore, which dropped sixteen shells around her and threw three missiles on board. Little damage was done by the shells, however, and two men, a stocker and a bluejack-et, were wounded. The battleship silenced the Turkish battery before retiring.

Bombarded Dardanelles' Forts.

A few days later, while landing operations were proceeding the Triumph with other warships, in addition to covering the landing, bombarded the forts in the Dardanelles to prevent reinforcements reaching the Turks from the Sea of Marmora.
The Triumph was credited in the official reports with having set fire to the town of Malidos during this bombardment.

The Triumph was commanded by Captain Maurice E. Fitzmaurice, was a vessel of 11,985 tons and of 12,500 horse-power. Her crew of officers and men in times of peace numbered about 700. The vessel carried four 10-inch, fourteen 7.5-inch guns and fourteen 10-pounders and four 6-pounders. In addition she carried two 18-inch torpedo tubes.

The Triumph was 436 feet long and had a speed of about 20 knots.
With the sinking of the Triumph five allied battleships have been accounted for in the Dardanelles by Turkish gun fire, mines or torpedoes.
Of these losses the British have sustained four—the Triumph, Ocean, Irresistible and Goliath. One French ship has been sunk—the Bouvet. In addition several other allied battleships have at various times been struck by Turkish shells and forced to retire from the fighting in the waterway.

Sinks in Seven Minutes.

DISCUSS NEEDS OF SOUTHERN REPUBLICS

ORATORY GIVES WAY TO STATEMENTS OF FACTS ABOUT CONDITIONS

Rumor States Gigantic Steamship Corporation to Insure Rapid, Regular and Safe Transportation May Result from Conference.

Washington, May 26.—Conferences between representatives of the financial and business interests of the United States and delegates from South and Central America attending the Pan-American financial conference were continued today in the effort to bring about a clear understanding of the desires and needs of the southern republics.

Entrusts Work to Sub-Committee.

There was no general session of the conference and the oratory that has marked previous meetings gave way to statements of facts about the conditions facing the various countries and the necessity for credit and cash to aid in their development. The committee on transportation which has under consideration what many of the delegates regard as the most important question which the conference has faced, entrusted its work to a sub-committee which is not expected to report until Friday. There were rumors tonight that there might result from the conference a gigantic steamship corporation backed by all the interested countries to insure rapid, regular and safe transportation between North and South America.

Have No Authority.

It was pointed out however, during the discussion of this subject, that so far as the United States is concerned, its official representatives have no authority to enter into any negotiations along this line and that it is well known that private capital in the United States is reluctant to go into shipping enterprises without assurances that there will be a modification of the navigation laws and amendments to the seaman's act passed by the last congress. Another suggestion talked over contemplated the establishment of steamship lines by the respective governments interested, the bonds of which should be government guarantees. Bonds of this character, backed by stable governments in South or Central America, it was urged, would prove attractive investments to the public in the United States.

Will Have Sentimental Value.

It developed today that while comparatively few of the visiting delegates have concrete proposals to offer which will immediately attract capital from the United States, the general feeling is that the conference will have a sentimental value which later should result in something more tangible than the present interchange of views.

Talk was revived among government officials of the possibility of a change in the federal reserve law which would permit a combination of banks which are members of the federal reserve system to establish a large bank in South or Central America, which in turn could found many branches. Such a bank it was suggested, might prove a powerful lever in advancing trade between the two sections of the hemisphere.

TORNADO IN OKLAHOMA KILLS

ONE AND INJURES FIVE PERSONS

HUGO, Okla., May 26.—Captain W. A. Welch, a confederate veteran, was killed and five persons injured in a tornado at Talihina, 75 miles north of here late today. Eight business houses and twelve residences were destroyed and several other buildings damaged.

The tornado was accompanied by a heavy downpour of rain. Several persons, according to meagre reports reaching here, were picked up and in many instances carried fifty yards by the wind.

Wire communication with Talihina is badly interrupted.

(12:25 a. m.)—A Constantinople despatch to the Tageblatt says that the British battleship Triumph was sunk by a submarine torpedo and that she disappeared in seven minutes.

COURSE OF U. S. IS UNDETERMINED

Officials Await Full Reports of Damage to Nebraskan

WILL ORDER PROBE

Hull of Ship Will Be Examined
To Determine Whether a Mine or Torpedo Struck Her

AWAIT STORY WITH INTEREST

BULLETIN.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—Consul General Skinner cabled the state department from London under date of five p. m., today that the Steamer Nebraskan was "proceeding under her own steam to Liverpool at a speed of 8½ knots, crew having returned from boats and apparently no lives lost. Extent of damage unknown."

WASHINGTON, May 26.—The course of the United States government in the case of the American Steamer Nebraskan, damaged off the coast of Ireland, was undetermined tonight because officials are without definite information as to whether the ship was torpedoed or struck a mine.

Captain's Report Indicates Doubt.

Messages from Ambassador Page and Consul General Skinner at London today transmitted the report of the British admiralty that the vessel had been torpedoed, but officials noted with much interest the captain's report to his owners, indicating a doubt as to whether the Nebraskan was hit by a torpedo or a mine.

President Wilson himself read all the official and unofficial despatches.
In view of the positive proposition which the United States has taken on the subject of submarine activity in the war zone and the delicacy of the situation with Germany arising out of the Lusitania disaster, the story of the Nebraskan's experience is awaited with unusual interest. Should it develop clearly that she was torpedoed without warning, an aggravating circumstance will have been added to an already tense situation, notwithstanding the fact that no lives were lost.

Germany in a circular note to neutral governments on May 11th, announced that regret would be expressed and payment of damages made without prize court proceedings for all neutral vessels attacked by mistake in the war zone.

The United States in its note of May 13th, pointed out that "expressions of regret and offers of reparation in case of the destruction of neutral ships sunk by mistake while they may satisfy international obligations, if no loss of life results, cannot justify or excuse a practice the natural and necessary effect of which is to subject neutral nations and neutral persons to new and immeasurable risks."

Reticent to Discuss Case.

Officials here were reticent to discuss the case pending full reports. Counselor Lansing of the state department revealed however that assurances had some time ago been received from Great Britain to the effect that such mines as had been laid by the British admiralty were of a nature which would become innocuous if detached from their anchorage. No other government Mr. Lansing said, had given similar assurances. The United States has never been able to fix responsibility for the accidents to the American cotton ships Carib and Evelyn and navy officers say it will be a difficult task to determine from an examination of the Nebraskan's hull whether a mine or a torpedo struck her. An investigation nevertheless will be ordered when the ship reaches port. A similar inquiry was made by naval attaches of the American embassy when the American Steamer Guilford reached port and it was determined that a German submarine was responsible. There have been intimations since then, however, that Germany in her reply would deny responsibility for the wrecking of the Guilford.

So far as the state department is informed, there is no British mine field near where the Nebraskan was struck.
The fact that the Nebraskan was under charter to a British concern, partly American owned prior to sailing on her return voyage, it was said, by officials, would not affect her status. She carried no contraband and was engaged in no hostile service being bound for Hamilton Roads to take on coal for the United States navy to be carried as freight to San Francisco.

War News Summarized

The king of Italy has taken supreme command of the army and navy and is now with his troops at the front. On the Austro-Italian frontier and for a few miles in Austrian territory the Italian lines stretch for a distance of fifty miles or more. In their forward movement the Italians have occupied several towns and are striking eastward towards Trieste.

The Austrian war office admits that Italian troops have entered Conino, in the Tyrol, about twenty miles east of Rovereto where prior to the declaration of war an Austrian barracks was blown up and many Italians were arrested. At the same time Vienna claims that the Italian attacks on the Carinthian frontier were repulsed with considerable losses to the invaders and that in an engagement across the border north of Udine, the Italians fled leaving their arms behind.

Another British battleship, the Triumph, which saw service in Chinese waters and off Symna, has fallen a victim in operations in the Dardanelles. A torpedo, whether German or Turkish is not known, sent her to the bottom. The British admiralty reports that probably the majority of the officers and crew were saved.

The American Steamer Nebraskan, bound from Liverpool for Delaware Breakwater, is on her way back to Liverpool. The Nebraskan when about 40 miles from Fastnet off the coast of Ireland was either torpedoed or struck by a mine. The men took to the boats but later returned to their vessel which had been damaged in the forward part and was able to proceed.

Successful progress still continues in the Galician district near Przemysl, according to Vienna, with the capture of additional men, guns and war material. In Russian Poland and south of the Dniester the situation generally remains unchanged.

On the west an engagement of extreme violence is in progress north of Arras, where the Germans are trying to retake captured positions and a similar condition prevails at the northern outskirts of the wood north of the road from Aix-Noulette to Souchez, where the French report a slight advance.

The British are reported by Paris to have made a fresh advance near La Bassée.

The British war office says that in this region since May 1st, the British have pierced the German line for a total front of over three miles.

TO PRESENT AFFIDAVIT BY MRS. FRANK BEFORE COMMISSION

Frank, It is Stated, Will Also Be Tendered as a Witness—Efforts Are Being Made to Induce Jurors to Sign Clemency Petition.

Atlanta, Ga., May 26.—An affidavit by Mrs. Leo M. Frank, detailing her knowledge of her husband's movements and actions on the day Mary Phagan was murdered, will be presented before the state prison commission here next Monday at the hearing on Frank's application for commutation of his death sentence to life imprisonment. This was announced today by W. M. Howard, who will have charge of Frank's petition. Mrs. Frank was not permitted under state law to testify at the trial.

Frank also will be tendered as a witness by his counsel, it was stated.
When asked today if Frank would be heard, a member of the commission stated that no applicant for a pardon or commutation ever had been allowed to appear in such proceedings and he was not prepared to say whether the precedent would be broken in Frank's case. Efforts are being made on behalf of Frank to induce a majority of the jurors who convicted him to sign a clemency petition.

Another movement urging clemency is under way among Atlanta ministers.
It was learned tonight that Solicitor General Dorsey who prosecuted Frank had filed with the commission a protest against commutation of sentence. The commission today received a petition from the Georgia society of New York urging that Frank's sentence be commuted.

OLDFIELD WILL NOT APPEAR

IN INDIANAPOLIS CONTEST

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 26.— Barney Oldfield, the dean of American race drivers, will not appear in the 500 mile contest at the Indianapolis motor speedway Saturday, he announced tonight. The car which Oldfield entered for the race was damaged beyond repair in practice. The veteran driver then was offered a place on a number of teams but the cars did not suit him and he refused the offers. He failed in an attempt to buy what he believed is the fastest car ready for the race. Oldfield said that rather than compete with what he considers a mediocre machine he will watch the contest from the stands.

LEGISLATORS TO MEET IN CHICAGO

House Adopts Resolution Calling for Congress to Discuss Law Uniformity

PASS GREGORY BILL

Measure Would Prohibit Candidates for Legislature from Making Pre-Election Pledges

AMEND HOME RULE BILL

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 26.— Uniformity of state laws will be discussed by members of the legislature of all the states at a legislative congress to be held in Chicago next fall, probably in October. The lower house of the Illinois legislature today adopted a joint resolution providing for the calling of such a congress. The resolution already had been passed by the senate. The congress will be the first meeting of its kind ever held in this country and will be under the auspices of a committee consisting of five members of each house of the Illinois legislature including Speaker David E. Shanahan and Lieutenant Governor Barratt O'Hara. Invitations will be extended to every state to send a delegation to the meeting.

After several amendments had been adopted and personalities had crept into the debate further consideration by the house of the bill providing for one day's rest in each week was postponed until tomorrow.
The bill was before the house on second reading.

The McCormick bill, limiting the hours of work for women to nine hours in any one day will be brought up on final passage in the house tomorrow.

Forecast Bill's Passage.

Passage of the waterway bill by the senate tomorrow by a comfortable margin was forecast today when by a vote of 30 to 7 the senate advanced the bill to third reading after a fight had been made to defer action. After the advancement of the bill it was made a special order for tomorrow morning.

By practically a straight vote and dry vote, the house today passed the Gregory bill prohibiting candidates for the legislature from making pre-election pledges. Nearly all of the "wets" voted for the bill and practically all of the dries against it.

Representative George H. Wilson of Quincy, floor leader for the dries, led the fight against the bill. He declared such a law is against the theory of representative government and would tend to deteriorate the membership of the legislature. The senate passed the Broderick bill appropriating $26,270.18 to reimburse members of the legislature for mil-age expended in traveling between the homes and the state capital to attend legislative sessions.

The senate also passed the Woodard bill appropriating $45,000 for additional flood prevention work along the Mississippi river near Cairo, Mound City and Shawnee-town.

Bills Passed by the House.

Following are some of the bills passed by the house:

Permitting organization by twenty or more persons of mutual insurance corporations other than life.

Enabling cities with a population of 150,000 or under to build and maintain municipal playgrounds.

Authorizing the organization of real-estate corporations.

Requiring a report to the state board of health within two weeks after the birth of an infant with sore eyes and providing for the free distribution of free silver nitrate.

Making children and family desertion a continuous offense. Mothers must now appear once each year to prosecute.

Senate Bills Passed.

Following are some of the bills
passed by the senate:

Permitting a combination of companies doing a surety and a casualty business.

Requiring the correct branding and labeling of dairy products.

Providing that a majority of legal voters of a high school district may dissolve the district.

Providing for state manufacture of hog cholera serum and its sale at cost.

Permitting absent registration.

Revising the law in relation to examination and certification of coal miners.

Revising the law in relation to state mine rescue stations.

Requiring fire fighting equipment in mines.

Revising the law in relation to

COURT SUSTAINS FIVE PER CENT CLAUSE

DECISION MAY CAUSE REFUNDING OF 15,000,000 ALREADY COLLECTED

Court Holds Rebate Must Be Granted on Goods Imported in Ships of Countries With Which United States has "Favored Nation" Treaties.

Washington, May 26.—The so-called five percent clause of the tariff law, granting a reduction of duties to that amount on goods imported in American ships was sustained today by the customs court, which held also that the five percent rebate must be granted on all goods imported in ships of those countries with which the United States has "favored nation" treaties. As such treaties exist with the principal countries of the world the effect of the decision is practically to reduce the customs revenue by five percent.

If the decision is sustained by the supreme court of the United States, to which it will be appealed, approximately $15,000,000 in duties already collected must be refunded.

Decision is Retroactive.

In a dissenting opinion Judge De-Vries pointed out that the majority decision means that goods imported in about 5,500 foreign vessels of favored nation countries shall receive this reduction in customs duties. Five percent of the estimated customs receipts for the present fiscal year would exceed $11,000,000 and in years to come this total would grow to even greater proportions.
Moreover, it was pointed out that the decision if it stands the test in the supreme court is retroactive to the extent that it applies to importations into the United States since approval of the Underwood-Simmons law more than two years ago, including goods entered in bond and subsequently withdrawn without payment of this rebate. Government officials realize that the decision may have a profound effect upon the fiscal policy of the United States.

At present the actual working balance in the treasury is under $15-000,000, though possibly $40,000-000 is available to be added to this if necessary. With an announced deficit in the postal revenues and no increases in internal revenue or customs receipts now in sight, talk of the necessity for an issue of Panama canal bonds was revived in view of the prospect of reduced customs revenues and the necessity of refunding millions already collected.
The payment of some $80,000,000 into the treasury due from the income tax, however, is counted on to delay any such emergency for several months.

Sustains Ruling in Part.

Today's decision of the customs court in part sustained the ruling of the board of general appraisers and in part reversed that body.

In addition to its findings regarding goods from abroad, the court held that merchandise from Cuba is entitled to a reduction of twenty per cent ad valorem as provided by the Cuban Preferential Treaty with the United States and to the further discount of five per cent from that amount.

county mine examiners; increasing the salary of state mine inspector; requiring additional safety precautions in mines.

Making the county the unit instead of the school district in paying for high school privileges for eight grade pupils in districts having no high schools.

Authorizing county boards to establish tuberculosis sanitariums and branch dispensaries and auxiliary institutions.

Providing that no grand jury shall be required outside of Cook county when the presiding judge or judges and the state's attorney shall decide that one is not necessary.

Making changes in the state dental law by providing five years preliminary study, an examination in writing upon theoretical subjects and other minor changes.

The bill backed by the anti-horse club association and introduced by Senator Smith of Springfield, prohibiting the carrying of firearms on public highways was defeated.

A bill appropriating $5,000,000 to the University of Illinois for the two years beginning July 1st, probably will be introduced in the lower house of the legislature tomorrow by the appropriations committee. A sub-committee of that body today drew such a bill and recommended that it be reported out favorably.

Amend Home Rule Bill.

Upon referendum vote every city or incorporated village in the state would have absolute power in regulating its public utilities and the state public utilities commission would be stripped of all powers except those exercised by the old railroad and warehouse commission, under an amendment which the lower house made to the Chicago home rule bill.

CUNEO PROCEEDS TO PORT

NEW YORK, May 26.—Seventy-seven passengers saved from possible death when the Holland-American Liner Ryndam collided early today with the tramp steamer Joseph J.
Cunee off Nantucket shoals lightship were brought safely to port tonight by the battleship South Carolina, which participated in the rescue. The Ryndam conveyed to Ambrose lightship by the battleship Texas reached the harbor before her passengers disembarked.

Much of Cargo Destroyed.

She was drawing thirty-six feet of water and much of her cargo, containing food stuffs for Holland, valued at a million dollars was destroyed. A hole in her side below the water line about the width of a plate was stopped with canvas. The Cunee, damaged, was proceeding under her own steam to this port. The Steamer Thomas J. Millard carrying friends and relatives of passengers and officers of the Holland-American Line went down the bay to meet the South Carolina to take on board the rescued passengers.

The Ryndam left here for Rotterdam yesterday with fifty-four cabin and twenty-three third class passengers. The crew numbered about 150. The Cunee left Boston last night for Baracoa, Cuba. Shortly before four o'clock this morning in a heavy fog, both steamers rammled each other. The wireless operator of the Cunee sent out a "help" signal which was picked up by several of the Atlantic fleet battleships in the vicinity, having just completed their war maneuvers.

The House of Representatives did well in killing the so-called "boxing" bill, which was designed to give legal recognition to the doubtful game of prize-fighting. In declining to pass the measure, it conformed to public sentiment on the subject and contributed to the peace of the state.

The proposed repaving of West State street seems to be meeting the approval of a majority of the property owners. Sheet asphalt is the material named in the petition to be presented to the commission. It would make of West State one of the finest streets in the state and it is hoped the project may be carried through.

The estimated wealth of this country in 1880 was $43,642,000,000. In 1900 it was $88,517,000,000 or a trifle over 100 per cent increase in twenty years. The census bureau now gives out an estimate of $187,129,000,000 as of 1912, which shows an increase of 112 per cent in only a dozen years. The percentage of increase of wealth relative to population is still more remarkable. It amounted to $870 per capita in 1880 and to $1,165 in 1900, or an increase of 33 per cent in twenty years. The census bureau gives the per capita wealth of the country to 1912 as $1,965, or an increase in twelve years to 70 per cent.

War as Tariff Substitute.

An exchange contains the following: The European war has served as a bar against the importation of foreign goods. It has compelled Americans to buy at home. The war began in August, 1914. In July of that year American industry was going to the bow-wows. Everything indicated it soon would reach the low level of 1893-4. Then came the practical annihilation of our import trade. It compelled Americans to buy American-made goods. There was a great inflation of our export trade. It was due to heavy European orders for American wheat, corn and other things, mostly war supplies. The total ran up into hundreds of millions of dollars. The result naturally was an industrial revival in spots that tended to repair to some extent the devastating effect of the policy of warfare on American business through a low tariff and other agencies.

The results attending this shutting out of foreign-made goods by the war protective tariff principle, because the war has done just what the protective tariff did before it was destroyed and the Underwood tariff substituted for it.

The business revival in some portions of this country within the last few months may be traced directly to the war taking the place of the protective tariff, even if it has not been observable here where our chief interest lies. In no sense is the business spur a vindication of the economic policies of the last congress, nor will the American public so regard it. The revival has come not because of the democrats, but in spite of them, and through circumstances wholly beyond their control.

School for Wounded Soldiers.

The thoroughness of German preparation for war is well illustrated by the report that the first school in Germany for wounded soldiers who must because of the nature of their injuries, change their trade or occupation, has been opened in Dusseldorf, with a large attendance.

In the class rooms of a big industrial school formerly occupied by boys and girls there now sit hundreds of soldiers, painstakingly learning to write with their left hand because their right has been shot off, or mastering the intricacies of bookkeeping or some similar occupation at which they may hereafter earn their living.

The project is that of the city of Dusseldorf, and has the backing of practically every business man in the city. The co-operation of the latter is of vital importance because places must be found for the soldiers as soon as they have become proficient in their new work.

The work has three distinct phases, aimed to help three separate classes of wounded. In the first division those who if possible are to return to the field, but need cross-training occupation during the term of their convalescence. For them a course of study ranging from four to six weeks has been instituted.

Into a second division fall those who are wounded in such a way that they cannot go back to the identical work which they did in peace times, but who if possible are to learn some other branch of their own trade. Thus for instance a former mechanic accustomed to a given type of work can be taught the office routine of his trade and can be fitted to step into the counting room.

Into the third class of soldiers fall those who must change absolutely their trade and kind of work. Their course takes the longest, and includes a period in which both the men and their instructors study the situation to see what specialty the men are best fitted for. Their education includes a careful theoretical basis on which is imposed a practical superstructure.

The huge school building in the Faerberstrasse contains a number of classes in bookkeeping and general office routine—attended chiefly by soldiers who have been wounded in the feet or lower limbs and cannot move about readily but who otherwise are sound. There is a machine shop at which a variety of trades can be taught to men who are capable of working at a machine with their hands but cannot use their legs to any great extent. A mechanical drawing department, a printing shop, a course in architecture for former members of the building trades who now must learn the theoretical side of their trades, an electrical laboratory, and courses in languages for men who have ambition to become salesmen after the war have also been provided.

Not the least important side of the big school is its employment bureau, which works in conjunction with the big manufacturing plants of the city. Scores of soldiers unfit for further service in the field have already been placed in both new and old occupations about Dusseldorf.

The school is absolutely free, as are also the board and maintenance of the soldiers.

AUSTRO-GERMAN ALLIES ASSUME OFFENSIVE IN MIDDLE GALICIA

Claim to Have Met With Further Success Along the San River—Western Fighting Consists Largely of Trench Warfare.

LONDON, May 26.—(11:05 p. m.)—Although called upon to face another enemy in Italy whose troops have crossed the eastern border, the Austrians and Germans have not relaxed their efforts on the other fronts.

In middle Galicia they have assumed the offensive against the Russians along the river San and claim to have met with further success; while in Flanders and Artois the Germans continue, according to the French report, to make furious attacks in an effort to regain the ground taken from them in recent weeks and to hold that which they took from the British in the region of Ypres. Except for the German admission that the British have captured part of their trenches to the northeast of Givinchy, the reports of the belligerent headquarters continue to contradict each other, one side claiming gains, while the other says that all attacks were repulsed with heavy losses.

So far as the west is concerned, however, the fighting, as has been the case for months, consists largely of trench warfare.

Meet Little Opposition.

The Italians who have crossed the Austrian frontier to the east along the front toward the Isonzo river have not yet met with any serious opposition.

In fact no important battle is expected until the invaders reach the river as it is here that the Austrians are established. In Greece the illness of King Constantine whose condition remains serious has brought the political situation to a standstill and it is regarded as unlikely that there will be any developments until after the pending elections.

The alleged torpedoing of the American steamship Nebraskan is featured by all the London papers, which describe the incident as "another challenge of America."

WHAT HAS BEEN DONE WITH Y. M. C. A. MONEY IN THE PAST?

The Y. M. C. A. management has the following to say regarding money formerly subscribed for the organization:

"In connection with the Y. M. C. A. campaign being conducted at this time, for the purpose of demonstrating an aggressive association working for a period of two years, the question is asked, 'What has been done with the money subscribed to the association seven years ago?' To those who knew the conditions at that time, the matter is quite clear. Their question is rather, 'How was it possible to meet the then existing indebtedness, make the sorely needed changes and improvements in the building and carry the current expenses for a year with the amount received?'

"First of all, the indebtedness, amounting to about $8,500, was paid. Secondly, sorely needed repairs and improvements were made in the building. It must be remembered that the building at that time was close to thirty years old. There had never been a large sum of money usable for keeping it in proper shape. The result was that the building had gotten into a deplorable condition. Had not the repairs been made then, the association building would have had to be discarded long ago. An entire new heating plant was installed; cement flooring put in throughout the basement to make possible locker and bath rooms; partitions had to be removed and changed so as to make supervision as easy as possible; with the limited employed force; there was, up to that time, practically no gymnasium equipment and the furnishings for the building were very meager. These things, together with the very natural heavy expense for repairs and maintenance in a building of that age, used up a considerable and an unexpectedly large share of the money subscribed. And lastly, a considerable sum had to be applied to the subscription end of the annual budget and take care of the shrinkage in collections.

"Jacksonville is one of but two cities in the state housing its Y. M. C. A. in an out-worn, non-income producing building. This makes the subscription end of the annual budget large. The modern building with its dormitory rooms, brings in as rental a goodly sum each year, to apply on the budget and reduces very decidedly the amount to be raised by public subscription. This thing Jacksonville must face until it joins Monmouth, the other city without a modern building, in providing such for its Y. M. C. A. Monmouth is definitely laying plans for the securing of such a building within a very few years at most."

All bills contracted by the city during the month of May must be filed not later than the 29th. W. F. Widmayer, Commissioner of Accounts and Finance.

DISCUSS LABOR CONDITIONS IN PORTO RICO AND COTTON MILLS

Industrial Relations Commission is Unable to Conclude Hearings—Gompers Will be Among Witnesses Today.

Washington, May 26.—Labor conditions in Porto Rico and in cotton mills of the south were discussed today before the industrial relations commission. The commission was unable to conclude its hearings tonight, according to program and several witnesses will be examined tomorrow including Samuel Gompers, president and others of the American Federation of Labor.

P. Riveria Martinez, president of the cigarmakers union of Porto Rico and Santiago Iglesias, organizer of the American Federation of Labor in Porto Rico, presented affidavits alleging unfair and brutal treatment of workmen in labor disputes on the island. Later J. C. Bills, Jr., Porto Rican minister of labor, began a statement which will be finished tomorrow. He said conditions on the island were bad but that every effort was being made to improve them.

David Clark of Charlotte, N. C., editor of a textile magazine submitted a statement to the commission denouncing in detail charges concerning child labor in the south made recently by Dr. A. J. McKelway, of the national child labor commission. Mr. Clark filed a mass of statistics designed to controvert Dr. McKelway's assertions as to wages paid in the cotton mills.

REPORTS OF VILLA VICTORY ARE APPARENTLY PREMATURE

Advices to State Department Indicate Opposing Armies Rested After Fighting at Leon and the Battle Was Resumed Wednesday.

Washington, May 26.—Reports of a decisive Villa victory over Carranza forces under Obregon in fighting about Leon as announced at Chihuahua by Villa's foreign minister apparently were "premature" according to official advices today to the state department. Best information obtainable, the department said, indicated the opposing armies had rested after severe fighting at Leon, with a decided advantage to Villa's forces and that the battle was resumed today.

The outcome of this conflict is expected to go far toward deciding military mastery in Mexico, for the immediate future at least.

Advices to the department from Frontera said it was reported there that serious disturbances had occurred in the Northern part of Tabasco with defeat for Carranza forces. Other advices told of reports that fighting was under way at Monclova with Villa forces attempting to recapture the town.

The Villa agency here announced it had reports claiming Monclova already had been retaken.

MYRON T. HERRICK SEES A NEW ERA IN AMERICAN POLITICS

States the Business Man Will Put His Personality Into Politics and He, Not His Money, Will Measure His Influence.

Kansas City, Mo., May 26.—A new era in American politics, an era which will place politics on a higher, more intellectual plane is the vision seen by Myron T. Herrick, former governor of Ohio and former United States ambassador to France, and described in an address before a Republican gathering here today. "Formerly men of business wrote large checks for campaign purposes," he said. "I do not criticize them for it, for I believe that in the main they were defending rather than desiring. But those contributions gave them the right to be consulted; they give them power in the councils. In the new era, which is coming, the business man will put his personality into politics; he, not his money, will measure his influence." This new era, Mr. Herrick asserted, is evidenced in the activities of commercial and civic organizations and the new personal interests, men of business and dollars, are taking in public affairs.

TAFT CRITICISES THE CLAYTON AND FEDERAL COMMISSION ACTS

Former President Denounces Leaders of the American Federation of Labor.

New York, May 26.—Former President William Howard Taft, in an address tonight at the annual banquet of the National Association of Manufacturers, severely criticized the Clayton act and the federal commission act as "detrimental to the business interests of the country" and denounced the leaders of the American Federation of Labor for exercising a "power that has become excessive and detrimental to the public weal and the good of society."

Prof. Taft was co-speaker with Senator Warren G. Harding of Ohio who declared that the "greatest menace of American progress is the professional baiting of big enterprises."

"I fully approve," said the former president, "of the principle of labor unions. But the power their leaders have acquired by the principle of combination in their organization has intoxicated them and they have exercised a tyranny over society and over their own members that is certainly leading to a reaction and to a restraint of their great powers within proper and lawful limits."

Rent Houses Wanted

There has never been a time when desirable rent houses, $7.50 to $25, were scarcer at Johnston Agency than they are today. Our facilities for securing the right renter for the right house are good. Being the only agency in the city making a specialty of this business, a constant stream of applicants pours through our office. We know what is due to tenants in the way of repairs, and our tenants stay. On the other hand, we collect all rents in advance, and we do not, upon the average, lose a full month's rent upon one house a year.

Landlords—We think you will find it profitable, and save yourselves a great amount of trouble, if you will let us attend to your rentals. We have made a science of it. And we respectfully solicit your business.

FLETCHER'S DEFENSE IN NAVAL WAR GAME IN ATLANTIC FAILS

Superiority of the "Enemy" Coupled With Weather Conditions Favorable for an Attack Bring About Defeat.

Washington, May 26.—Superiority of the "enemy" in units representing fast and heavily armed battle cruisers coupled with weather conditions favorable for an attack brought about the failure of Admiral Fletcher's defense of the Atlantic seaboard in the naval war game which closed yesterday, with Rear Admiral Beatty's invaders in a position to establish a base in Chesapeake Bay.

The story of the game as told in reports of the commanding officers to the navy department today revealed that Admiral Beatty, with a theoretically stronger force, engaged the main body of the defending fleet last Thursday and destroyed about half of Admiral Fletcher's scouts while easily eluding the supporting dreadnoughts. Then, when Admiral Fletcher drew off to guard against a movement against New England or New York the "enemy" swept southward prepared to establish a base of operations by landing an expedition from his transports and at the same time faced northward with sufficient force to deal with any squadrons the defenders might send against him.

Admiral Fletcher's defensive campaign was described as a good one but he was handicapped not only by the weather and lack of speedy scouts with long range guns but by inability to have submarines on the scene when the final test against the enemy came.

ITALIA KING ASSUMES SUPREME COMMAND OF THE ARMY AND NAVY

Duke of Genoa is Appointed Lieutenant General of the Kingdom.

Rome, May 26.—Via Paris, May 26.—(11:25 p. m.)—King Victor Emmanuel has assumed supreme command of the army and navy. He left Cognito for the front last night. Only his ministers, who were confidentially informed of the intended departure of the king bade him farewell.

The official Journal publishes a decree appointing the Duke of Genoa (Prince Thomas of Savoy) lieutenant general of the kingdom. During the king's absence he will carry on the duties of state in the name of the king, but will refer all affairs of first importance to his majesty unless they are of the most urgent nature.

The Messagerio in paying a tribute to the king says: "The first citizen of Italy has left the capital to go to the front and be among his fighting troops. To him, who today set foot for the first time on Italian land, which until a few days ago was yet disunited from the mother country; to him, who in this moment is the symbol of the union and concord among all Italians, goes our augural salutation, in the hope for the highest success to the Italian arms."

"For Victor Emmanuel has been reserved the highest fortune that ever a sovereign could enjoy—that he will see complete under his crown national unity."

"To Victor Emmanuel go the grateful and solemn greetings of the entire Italian people."

HEAVY RAINS AND ELECTRICAL DISTURBANCE DO MUCH DAMAGE

Sections of Railroad Track Have Been Washed Out in Many Places in Kansas, Oklahoma and Missouri.

Kansas City, Mo., May 26.—Heavy rains accompanied by high wind and in some localities by hail and severe electrical disturbances, did much damage throughout Kansas, northern Oklahoma and western Missouri today. Sections of railroad track have been washed out in many places and telegraph and telephone communication is crippled tonight. All smaller streams throughout the district are reported rising rapidly and many of the rivers are approaching flood stage.

Stock was killed by the lightning in many places and two 99,000 barrel oil tanks near Teriton, Oklahoma, were set on fire by lightning and burned. A. E. Williams, general manager of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas railroad, is reported marooned at Sand Springs, Oklahoma, together with 800 delegates to a druggists convention at Tulsa.

Tornado Strikes Springfield. Springfield, Mo., May 26.—A tornado, accompanied by a heavy rain, struck Springfield about 10 o'clock tonight unroofing buildings and strewing the streets with wires, trees and part of buildings. At eleven o'clock telephone communication with the outside world ceased. The damage will aggregate many thousands of dollars.

HEAVY RAIN DRENCHES COUNTY AT EARLY HOUR WEDNESDAY

An Inch and a Quarter of Rain Falls in Short Space of Time—Creeks Are Up and Jacksonville Sewers Flooded.

An inch and a quarter of water fell during the heavy downpour of Wednesday morning which began shortly before six o'clock and fell so fast that many streets ran like torrents, full to the curbing, and the sewer system of the city was taxed beyond capacity. Many streams and creeks are up, it is said, and Big Indian near Literberry is almost a mile in width. Electrical effects of the storm were very damaging to telephones and north of Alexander a number of private lines were rendered useless for the time being. The total rainfall Wednesday was 1.77 inches and this with the 69 of the day before makes a remarkable precipitation for so short a time. Mr. Hall, the weather observer, thinks these figures may have been exceeded in certain sections, especially from Alexander on north.

From the south also came reports of heavy rain and in Nortonville precinct the fall was very heavy. All streams are out of their banks and all low lands are under water, so that growing crops on them are ruined. Apple Creek is the highest it has been for years and acres of wheat have been washed down and much corn will have to be planted over. Many bridges are out and travel is much interrupted.

WESTVILLE MAN IS ARRESTED FOR KISSING HIS OWN WIFE

Bride Charges Husband With Disorderly Conduct—Man is Placed in Jail in Default of Bond After Being Found Guilty.

Danville, Ill., May 26.—An unusual climax of an interesting romance occurred today when Leo Griggsby was arrested for kissing and nuzzling his own wife.

Two years ago Griggsby, who lives at Westville, was in the mountains of Tennessee with a party of friends, including a minister.

On a railway trestle 300 feet above a mountain torrent they met another party in which was Miss Welma Nichols of Georgetown, a mining village five miles south of Westville. As a result of a banter, Griggsby and Miss Nichols were married on the trestle, and ten minutes later parted. Later both returned to their homes without either knowing they lived in adjoining towns.

Last night they attended a dance at Georgetown and met for the first time since their marriage. Griggsby accompanied his bride home, and today she appeared before a local magistrate and had a warrant issued for him charging disorderly conduct, alleging that he placed his arms about her and kissed her. The young man was placed in the Georgetown jail in default of bond after being found guilty of the charge.

PLEDGE LOYALTY TO NATION.

Chicago, May 16.—Loyalty to the nation and support to President Wilson was pledged today in resolutions adopted at the diocesan convention of the Episcopal church here.

"No peace can be permanent except it be based on righteousness and justice in national or international relations," the resolutions asserted. "There is a peace which is deadlier than war. The present catastrophe marks the breakdown of a civilization in which unscrupulous competition existed."

TWO MEN KILLED BY BURLINGTON TRAIN AT CHAPIN

William Butler of Beardstown and Abe Shepard of Madison Go to Sleep on Track.

Two men were struck by Burlington passenger train No. 52, south-bound, about three quarters of a mile north of Chapin Wednesday morning at 3 o'clock. William Butler of Beardstown was instantly killed and Abe Shepard of Madison was so badly injured that he died a few hours later.

Butler and Shepard were working with an excavating gang on the Mauvaisterre creek near Chapin. They had been to Beardstown and were returning and evidently had laid down in the middle of the track and gone to sleep. The engineer saw the men on the track but thought they were hogs. He stopped his train and found that Butler had been literally ground to pieces. Shepard had an arm cut off and both legs broken.

The injured man was taken to Chapin and attended by Dr. Lucien Smith. He died about 11 o'clock. Shepard had run away from his home in Madison and his father and brother were looking for him in the vicinity of Chapin and were with him when he died.

Coroner George W. Wright was notified and went to Chapin where he held an inquest on the body of Butler. The jury was as follows: Ratio McKinney, foreman, Jason Johnson, Elmer Sides, Chester Joanson, Dr. F. G. Eilers and John Funk. The remains were then taken to Beardstown for burial.

Coroner Wright will go to Chapin again this morning and hold an inquest on the body of Shepard. The verdict of the jury in the case of Butler was that he met his death by a Burlington train and that no one was responsible. This verdict probably will be given in the case of Shepard. After the inquest Shepard's body will be taken to Madison for burial.

OLD JACKSONVILLE

Townships and The Deatons

By Ensley Moore.

Member of Illinois State Historical Society.

Town people have little understanding of "metes and bounds" as understood and referred to by country people. The latter will talk about each other as living on certain sections, or quarters or half quarters, or eighths (the same as a half quarter) or forties or twentys—all of course meaning the way land is measured into acres and the larger divisions.

People are often referred to as living in certain townships. By the way, how many people in Jacksonville, or larger places, know, think or care what township they live in? Yet there is such a division of the county which has its local government and school system, just as important to the inhabitants as is government of towns or cities.

An ordinary township is six miles square. In the East—New England or New York—and in some parts further west, what we call a township, is referred to as a town. This may have in it a village, town or city.

At first thought it seemed queer to hear people of Northampton inquire of a visitor from this region, "Are you going down to the village?" instead of asking if one were going "down town".

In Cook county (Chicago) this state, reference is made to "the town of Lake" or "the town of Cicero" or "the town of Lake View," by the newspapers of the metropolis.

Jacksonville city is in township 15, north of range 10, west of the 3d principal meridian, in Morgan county, Illinois. Now what section or quarter of it, does the reader imagine he or she lives in? It may not be a very important matter to be sure of, but, like many other things, it may be worth knowing. This township used to be known as Jacksonville precinct and everybody in the township voted, on county, state and national days at the court house. In 1876, or thereabouts, Jacksonville precinct used to be entitled to 64 delegates in the republican county convention.

A presumably veracious chronicler states that the first settlement in this township was in 1820, and goes on to say: "John Bradshaw, accompanied by Col. Joseph Morton, built a cabin east of the present city of Jacksonville, in the fall of that year. John Wyatt, Wm. York, Wm. Wyatt, President Homes, Thos. Wiswell, Wm. C. Very, Christopher B. Stebbins, Mr. Myers (who was the first postmaster in the county), Carson and Judge Aaron Wilson were among the first settlers."

Now, this settlement of this township is not to be confused with the first settlement in the county. That was by the Kellogs, in 1818, and was in a township further east, adjoining "Jacksonville township" as it may be called.

The writer referred to above also said of this township: "The surface of this township, which is gently rolling, was originally about equally divided between timber and prairie." The timber would be first, naturally on the Mauvaisterre creek which winds around the city from northeast, east, southeast and north, but the site of the city, as previously, stated in this series of papers, was open prairie, that is the original part of town. By additions it has since reached to what was Grier's grove on the east, Duncan's grove on the west, and College grove southwest.

Township 15-11 west, was also settled in 1820, the northwest portion of it being settled by the Deatons and others. That is over by the "brick school house" and the present County Farm. The Kelloggs also had a place there a while after their first location, east of town, in this county. This township lies about three miles north and three miles south of the Wabash railway, and joins Jacksonville township on the west. This term "Jacksonville township" is not proper, but will probably be easier understood by most readers. Townships are called by their numbers. This being "15-10".

Joseph P. Deaton dwelt west of the county farm in 1872. His father, James, was a farmer, and a very old settler of Amelia county, Virginia, having been born in that county. Joseph P. was born in that county, Jan. 2, 1806. His parents traveled on to Botetourt county, Virginia, when he was about five years old.

They kept coming and landed presumably in St. Clair county, this state, in 1819; coming to Morgan county in 1821 (as is stated in one account; probably they got here in 1820). Joseph P. Deaton married Miss Sarah Cook, daughter of J. Cook, of this county. Mr. Cook came here in 1826. Mr. and Mrs. Deaton had five children: Elizabeth, born July, 1829, married Jacob Stout; Marshall, who died in 1842; Thos. Deaton, Jr., born March, 26, 1833, married Mary A. Caldwell, daughter of David B. Caldwell, Feb. 8, 1854; Mary, married Abraham Litter, and L. Ann Deaton, who died a child of five years of age.

Jos. P. Deaton was in the militia at Galena when the troubles began with Black Hawk. He was in no serious engagements, but was ready to do his part; and, in those days, the settlers knew that an Indian war might mean untold miseries and atrocities upon the whites. Mr. Deaton was still living in 1872 and told of his early experiences with the difficulties of pioneering. He was referred to as "Squire Deaton," so he, no doubt, had been a justice of the peace.

The Thos. Deaton, Jr. referred to was probably Thos. P. who lived latterly in or about Alexander. He was a justice of the peace, and a very enthusiastic republican. His was prominent for many years in the county conventions of that party. Later on, suffering from rheumatism, he went over about Eureka Springs, Mo. where he had a log cabin, and he was greatly benefited by the kindly water. Some years ago he was here on a visit and he fairly danced a jig on Knollenberg's corner, in demonstrating how much good the waters of Eureka had done him. He was a pleasant and kindly old gentleman.

Another Deaton was A. B. He was born in Morgan county, Nov. 22, 1839, and died in Bloodland, Mo., Nov. 3, 1913. Mr. Deaton attended the public schools in Morgan county and then went to La Grange College, Indiana, where he finished his education. He was married in 1864 to Miss Lena McCarty, of near Arzenville, Cass county.

In an obituary notice of him, a correspondent in Literberry, said: "In writing of a young man contracting marriage at this particular time one wonders why he was not with the boys fighting for his country. This is explained by the fact that he was incapacitated, being a victim of inflammatory rheumatism. Nevertheless, two of his brothers went to the front, one being killed at Resaca, Ga."

Soon after his marriage in 1865, Mr. Deaton took his mother and sister and went to Richardson county, Nebraska; spending ten years there, farming and teaching school. In 1875, he pioneered again this time to what is now Hodgman county, Kansas; but, at that time it was a howling wilderness, covered with buffalo and wolves. The Deatons stayed there fourteen years and, saw a delightful farming region developed.

The Deatons then wished a more healthful region and came back to the Ozark mountains of Pulaski county, Mo., where they arrived in 1889, and acquired a competency from their labors in farming in that region.

John Deaton was born near here, Nov. 4, 1848. He attended Whipple Academy, being a Phi Alpha, in 1869. He taught school in Greene and Macon counties, and married Miss George Cunier, of Macon, Ill. He farmed in Macon county until 1883, when he removed to Lyons, Rice county, Kansas. There he engaged in merchandising, where he was apparently successful at last accounts.

Another Deaton was Augustus P. He was a student in Whipple Academy in 1873. He left college in the fall of the following year. He was also a Phi Alpha in college. He became an attorney, and has been away from here for some years.

Eames' History says: "Roland Shepard came to the county about 1821 and in 1823 built a band-mill which was run by horse or ox power. It was located on what is now the Wm. Taylor farm, situated on Indian creek.

Deaton's mill was the next built."

Judge Wm. Thomas gives Samuel Deaton in the list of first Justices of the Peace.

Eames says: "The Methodists and Baptists held meetings at different places in the county in 1821. The house of Jas. Deaton was one of the places where the Methodists held their worship."

In March, 1820: "Jas. Deaton and his son, Levi, and Robt. James pitched their tents and selected their claims. * * Mr. Deaton and his son made their claims about four miles west, on what is now called the McCormack place, on the Mercedosa road, and Mr. James also settled in the same neighborhood."

"The provisions brought; with them by the settlers were intended to last till Fall, when the corn crop was made, but it happened Mr. Deaton and his son exhausted their supply of corn meal and bacon about the first of June, compelling them to * * travel a distance of 85 miles to Edwardsville to renew their supply. The journey had to be made mostly in the night to avoid the green-head flies of the prairie, which at this season would in daytime almost bleed a team to death. Shaping their course by the stars, and without a road or trail, they started on the trip, provisionless and hungry. Their first camping place was on Apple creek. The country had been pretty well cleared of game by Indians, but here they were fortunate enough to kill a squirrel, which, they roasted at their camp-fire. During the next day they killed a deer, where the city of Jerseyville now stands, and thus they were enabled to reach Edwardsville in excellent time and spirits." Edwardsville is down about Alton, being the county seat of Madison.

In connection with the travels of the Deatons the following from Eames is interesting: "Although at this time game was exceedingly scarce, having been killed out or driven away by the Indians, bees were abundant, and in the fall after the corn crop had been made, the first settlers reaped a rich harvest in honey and wax, the latter constituting at that time, in connection with furs, the circulating currency of the frontier. An average of from six to eight trees a day was considered ordinary luck by the bee hunters and the Messrs. Wyatt, who appear to have excelled in this line of woodcraft, were known to have found as many as twelve trees a day."

The cyclone of April, 1825, of which Mr. A. K. Barber told, blew the clapboards off the roof of Jas. Deaton's house.

A Jacksonville volunteer in Black Hawk war, said to Eames, probably, "James Deaton, who was the chief military man of this neighborhood, called out every able-bodied citizen and the first draft we had ever experienced occurred."

In another place Florentine E. Kellogg is quoted by Eames as saying: "James Deaton built a small horse-mill, to run with a raw-bile band around the spindle. * * My father, I think, taught the first school in the county; (this is probably wrong) we also had Sunday school at Uncle Jimmie Deaton's."

Eames states further: "The first bridge in the county was built this summer (1821) over the Mauvaisterre creek, at a place east of the city on the Springfield road, where Rock Bridge now stands, by Col. Joseph Morton, Mr. Levi Deaton and a few others."

Levi Deaton is quoted as follows by Eames: "The first sermon preached in the county, so far as I know, was by Rev. John Glanville, at my father's house in 1822. A class was then and there organized, consisting of my father and mother, and a brother named Johnson, and his wife."

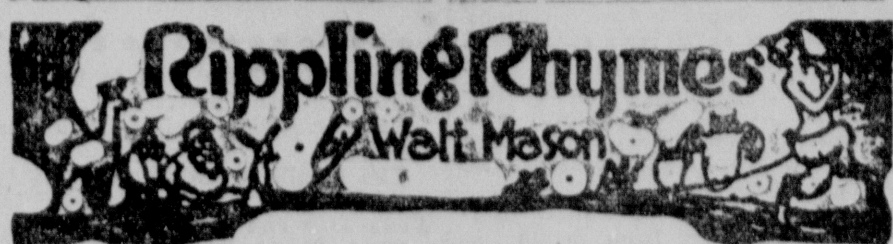

There were other Deatons who were well known, but details of their histories are not at hand.

HARD LUCK

Little Willie's pulling weeds, and his gentle bosom bleeds, for the fish are fairly thick 'way down yonder in the creek. So he thinks his fate is hard as he sweats around the yard, and his 'eye with moisture blurs while he pulls the cockle-burs. Gentle Willie, slay the weeds, ere the blamed things go to seeds; while the other fellows fish, let your sickle go swish-swish; pull them, hack them with your knife—for that sort of thing is life. All of us who earn our hay thus are toiling, day by day: doing things that break our hearts. In the workshops or the marts, at the loom or at the plow, earning bread wit's streaming brow. All of us profoundly wish we might quit our work and fish; but in vain we long and yearn, for the call of life is stern; we must to the burden bend, we must strive until the end. What's the answer, Willie asks. Let's pretend we like our tasks. Let us to our comrades say, "You go fishing—we will stay pulling these delightful weeds! That's the fun my system needs!" Let us make our work a joy; that's the answer, Willie boy.

Let us make our work a joy; that's the answer, Willie boy.

HONORS FOR DAUGHTER OF DR. AND MRS. A. S. LOVING

Not long since Dr. and Mrs. A. S. Loving, nee Miss Lottie Fox, removed to Rockford, Ill. where the doctor is practicing his profession, and recently their daughter won a medal for singing.

The Rockford Young People's exposition opened the 18th and closed the 24th with a monster parade of nearly 10,000 of Rockford's children and college students in line. They marched nearly a mile through East and West State streets to the Fair Grounds Park where the May pole dance, drills and games, etc. were given.

In the Armory the products of the most skillful in mechanics, furniture designing, arts and crafts, domestic science, etc. were on exhibition; also on three of the evenings concerts were given by choruses, trios, duets, soloists that had been selected from merit.

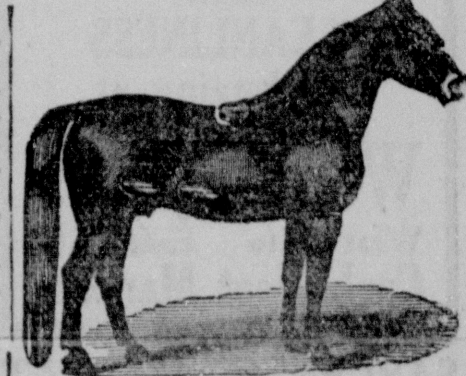

Dr. and Mrs. Loving's daughter, Ida Louise, who is past eleven years, won a silver medal in singing, and her marks were the highest of any of the silver medal winners in that line, which was certainly a great honor and naturally her parents and friends are proud of the little miss and many Jacksonville friends will unite in sincere congratulations.

CAUSE FOR GRUMBING?

A veteran farmer remarked yesterday that there was one thing that was rather mystifying him. If we have so much rain that the chinch bugs will be materially destroyed, as seems to be likely, and such good rains, too, that crops will be fine what will be left for a cause for grumbling?

EUROPEAN WAR NOTES

London, May 26.—(10:17 p. m.)—The following official statement was issued by the British war office tonight: "The first army continues to make progress east of Festubert. A territorial division carried last night a group of German trenches, capturing thirty-five prisoners and machine guns.

"Since May 1st, the first army has pierced the enemy's line on a total front of over three miles. On this, the entire hostile front line has been captured.

"The total number of prisoners taken is eight officers and 770 other ranks. Ten machine guns in all have fallen into our possession as well as a considerable quantity of material and equipment, particulars of which are not yet available."

Paris, May 26.—(11:10 p. m.)—The following official communication was issued by the war office tonight: "The British troops have made a new advance in the direction of La Bassée taking sixty prisoners of whom several were officers and capturing some machine guns.

"To the north of Arras the Germans have continued their desperate efforts to re-take in the region of Angres the positions which they lost yesterday. The engagement throughout the day was one of extreme violence.

"At the Cornailles fortified works a counter attack by the enemy at first compelled us to withdraw but in less than an hour we had reconquered the whole position and we have maintained it since then.

"At a neighboring work, farther to the south, the enemy after sanguinary attacks has re-taken a part of the north salient, but we have held the west salient and carried part of the south salient.

"Between these two works and the road from Aix-Noulette to Souchez our attacks have made progress and we have gained a foothold at divers points in the lines of the enemy who has not succeeded in re-occupying any of the trenches captured yesterday by us.

"At the northern outskirts of the wood north of the road from Aix-Noulette to Souchez a spirited engagement has taken place but the respective positions have not been modified. Between that road and the Massif de Lorette, in the Fond de Duval the violent fire of the enemy's artillery has not been able to dislodge us from the positions taken yesterday and we have gained new ground on the slopes to the north-east of the Chapel of Lorette. We have advanced about two hundred yards, notwithstanding an intense bombardment of the outskirts of Ablain St. Nazaire and captured a quick firer.

"At Neuville St. Vaast after a very hot struggle we occupied a group of houses which formed a dangerous salient. The enemy in these various actions suffered very heavy losses.

"A German aeroplane which was flying over Paris this morning came into contact with a squadron of the entrenched camp. It dropped bombs without result on Villenoy near Meaux. Our aeroplane squadron having been forewarned waited for the return of the German machine. The avialik, which was loaded with four bombs was brought to the ground by one of our aeroplanes near Etraine in the region of Soissons.

"The two German aviators were killed. Our aeroplanes have successfully dropped fifty shells of ninety kilometers on the aerodrome at La Drayelle, near Douai. The hangars and machines which were on the ground were struck."

Paris, May 26.—A despatch to the Havas Agency from Rome says the Duke of Avarna, former Italian ambassador to Austria, arrived in the Italian capital at 3 o'clock this afternoon and was given an ovation by crowds gathered at the railroad station.

Rome, May 26, via Paris.—The official journal today publishes a decree appointing Prince Thomas of Savoy a lieutenant general. It is understood that the prince will act for King Victor Emmanuel in all state affairs during the absence of the monarch from Rome.

Berlin, via London, May 26.—(10:10 p. m.)—Prince Von Buelow, the German ambassador to Italy, and the Princess Von Buelow arrived in Berlin this morning. It is stated that their departure from Rome was not marked by the slightest untoward incident. There was no display of ill-feeling on the part of the people toward Germany and it seemed as if Italy still hoped to avoid war with Germany while conducting hostilities with Austria-Hungary. Prince Von Buelow, it is asserted, was compelled three times to request his passports before he obtained them.

Signor Bolatti, the Italian ambassador, departed from Berlin at five o'clock this morning aboard a special train.

The Hague, via London, May 26.—(10 p. m.)—There is no intention on the part of Holland to send a protest to Germany with reference to the sinking of the Steamer Lusitania by a German submarine according to statements made today by highest officials here. The Netherlands government, it was asserted, like every other government, feels the deepest horror over the sinking of the liner to the bottom but, as there is no direct evidence that any Dutch subjects lost their lives in the catastrophe, action cannot be taken simply on general humanitarian principles unless all the neutral nations agree to make a move together. Even should Hollanders have been killed aboard the Lusitania it was added, the matter probably would be settled by the payment of an indemnity by Germany after the usual representations.

Rome, May 26, via Paris, May 26.—(7:25 p. m.)—The Italian government, believing that Austria-Hungary is utilizing several ports on the Albanian coast for secret commissariat departments, declared a blockade today against "that portion of the Austria-Hungarian coast, comprised between the Italian frontier on the north to the Montenegrin boundary on the south, including all island ports, anchorages and bays and also the Albanian coast from the Montenegrin limits on the north to and including Cape Kephallion on the south."

The declaration specifies the geographical limits by latitude and longitude and adds:

"Vessels belonging to friendly and neutral powers will be allowed, sufficient time to leave the zone, the amount of time to be determined by the chief of the naval forces.

"Measures will be taken in conformity with the rules of international law and treaties in existence against all vessels endeavoring to cross, or which succeed in crossing the line marked by Cape Otrante and Cape Kephallion."

WORLD'S MARKET NEWS

ABSENCE OF EXPORT SALES GIVE WHEAT A SHARP SETBACK

Reports That the American Steamer
Nebraska had Been Torpedoed
Also Attribute to Drop in Price—Corn Suffers Loss.

Chicago, May 26.—Wheat suffered a sharp setback in value today largely because of reports that the American steamer Nebraska had been torpedoed and because of the absence of export sales of any consequence. At one time May wheat showed a break of 6 1/2c. The market closed fairly steady at 5 1/2c to 5 3/4c under last night. Corn finished 1/2c to 1 1/4c net lower, oats off 1/4c to 1/2c and provisions varying from 2 1/2c to a rise of 7 1/2c.

No radical fall in the price of wheat took place until after an announcement was made that the Nebraska had been disabled and was limping back to Great Britain. Then in a twinkling the moderate selling pressure which had resulted from bearish trade conditions at Liverpool became much enlarged and prices thereafter had no important rally. Except right at the outset of trading, crop news was for the most part ignored, notwithstanding the fact that Kansas harvest was declared to have been delayed ten days and that estimates were current of losses of 50,000,000 to 50, 600,000 bushels this month in the total yield of the United States.

Weakness of May wheat took a specially acute form when the fact developed that shipments for delivery on May contracts here were being rushed to Chicago from Omaha, Kansas City and St. Louis and other points. It was said that by Saturday there would be 3,500,000 bushels of cash on contract wheat with Chicago public elevators whereas until recently the prospect was that owing to European demand the available supply here would be so short that an end of the month squeeze appeared certain.

Depression in wheat spread to corn and oats. Nebraska and Iowa complaints that owing to adverse weather a good deal of corn would have to be replanted were only generally effectual toward upholding prices. The bulk of reports about the oats crop remained of a favorable character.

Face Eruptions Have Deep Significance

Often They Indicate Impurities Deep in the Tissues.

The results shown by S. S. S. in clearing the skin reveal how searching and how deeply this famous blood purifier attacks blood troubles. Facial eruptions are more often significant of impaired nutrition resulting from faulty elimination of body wastes. Most people realize this to be true. And yet it is a difficult matter to convince such people they should avoid those harmful drugs such as mercury, iodide of potash, arsenic and so on. S. S. S. gives just as good effect without the destructive results, because it is more searching. It goes deeply into the circulation wherever the blood flows, but it does not remain to clog the system. And its effect is complete and thorough as indicated by blood tests. One of the strange things today is that so many people are wedded to the notion that mercury is the one antidote. It is not so. There is in S. S. S. a product of nature that is rated one of the most potent principles known for the complete elimination of blood troubles.

Wherever you go there are people who know this to be true from their own experience. For it has been clearly shown there is one ingredient in S. S. S. as essential to health if the blood be impure as the nourishing elements of the grains, sugars and salts of our daily food. Get a bottle of S. S. S. today if any druggist, but insist upon S. S. S., accept no substitute. And if your case is peculiar or of long standing, write to the Medical Adviser, The Swift Specific Co., 101 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.

A CLEAR COMPLEXION

Ruddy Cheeks—Sparkling Eyes—Most Women Can Have

Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known Ohio Physician

Dr. F. M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, you will know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter that one's system collects.

If you have a pale face, sallow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headaches, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results.

Thousands of women, as well as men, take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets now and then just to keep in the pink of condition.

If you have Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the successful substitute for calomel—10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

JOSEPH B. WILLIAMSON ANSWERS DEATH'S CALL

PASSES AWAY AT LATE HOME EARLY WEDNESDAY MORNING

Was a Veteran of the Civil War and for Many Years Engaged in the Grocery Business—Long Time a Worker in Baptist Church—Funeral Will be Friday.

At 9 o'clock Wednesday morning, a respected citizen, a faithful soldier and earnest christian, Joseph B. Williamson, died at his home on West Jordan street after a long and painful illness borne with christian fortitude and resignation.

Mr. Williamson was born in Oldham, England, Sept. 22nd, 1839, the son of James and Sarah Williamson, of sturdy ancestry. When but six years of age he came to this country with his brother, Thomas, and remained with him till April, 1849, when the family arrived here and the little fellow, then but ten years of age, joyfully awaited the arrival of the Wabash train and shouted as he saw his mother's head in the car window, "They've come; they've come!"

His home was in this place mostly, though a part of the time it was in Virginia, Cass county, with his brother. He received the best advantages the place afforded and was a well read man.

Was War Veteran.

August 21, 1861, he enlisted at Virginia in Co. K, 33rd Illinois infantry and veteranized in Jan. 1864, and was mustered out honorably Oct. 11, 1864.

The regiment was mustered in at Camp Butler, and his company had for its lieutenant and afterwards its captain, Franklin Adams, son of the late Dr. Samuels Adams of Illinois College. The first captain was Chas. E. Lippincott, brother of J. P. Lippincott of this city. Captain Lippincott was promoted to Lieutenant Colonel and later to Colonel and remained with the regiment until Sept. 16, 1865. The regiment saw a great deal of hard service; the first fall they moved to various points in the south and July 7th of the following year at Cotton Plant, Miss., they had a lively battle and were victorious. In November, 1862 they were attached to the first brigade, first division, 13th army corps and took part in the battles of Port Gibson, Champion Hills, Black River Bridge, the Assault and Siege of Vicksburg and the siege of Jackson. They then went to New Orleans and Mr. Williamson has often remarked with a great satisfaction that he helped General Butler clean up and govern the metropolis of the south. After leaving New Orleans the regiment was scattered along the line of the road, Company K being at Bayou Bouef, La. In March, 1865 as they were being transferred the train was thrown from the track and several killed but Mr. Williamson escaped. Later they started for Mobile but Company K was left behind to guard transportation but reached the command in time for the attack on the Spanish fort, the main defense of Mobile. After the surrender of Mobile they moved to Montgomery, Ala., and there received the news of the surrender of Lee and Johnston. They were then moved to Vicksburg in April and remained there until mustered out in the fall.

In Grocery Business.

After returning home Mr. Williamson engaged in various pursuits and in 1866 attended the Jacksonville business college and was one of the early graduates, probably about the second. He then went into business with his brother James in the building now occupied by Barr & Huffman and in 1868 erected and occupied the brick structure on West State street and there he has ever since maintained an honorable career and he often used to claim that he kept the neatest grocery in the city.

Was Church Worker.

He was a long time and valued member of Illini lodge, No. 4, I. O. O. F. and Matt Starr post, G. A. R. He was one of the early and long time consistent members of the Baptist church of this city and his sister, deceased a few years ago, was one of the charter members. For many years he taught the bible class in the Sunday school and was ever a faithful student of the holy scriptures.

For many years he was superintendent of Mt. Emory Baptist Sunday school and a faithful worker among the colored people of the city and was respected by them. In business he was successful and his word was as good as gold.

June 11, 1867 he was married to a lovely lady, Miss Mary Bills, who lived but a few years to gladden his home and passed away leaving a babe nine months old. Since that time he has made his home first with his sister and later with his son and family who have been devoted to him at all times and made his last days as comfortable as love and attention could make them.

He leaves one son, A. B. Williamson, five grandchildren, Marion, Edith, Lindley, Dorothy and Margaret. Also a brother, T. S. Williamson of Virginia and now 96 years old and one sister, Mrs. Hannah Shreve of this city. One brother, James, died a few years ago in Philadelphia, and his sister, Miss Elizabeth, died two years ago.

The funeral will be conducted at First Baptist church Friday at 2:30 p. m. by Rev. Percy Stephens and burial will be in Diamond Grove cemetery.

Willard Young of Litterberry was among the Wednesday business callers in Jacksonville.

MISS ELIZABETH WOOD BECOMES BRIDE OF MR. GEORGE HARDWICK

Ceremony Said Wednesday Afternoon at Home of Mr. and Mrs. Iven Wood Near Pisgah—Couple Will Reside at Merritt.

The marriage of Miss Mary Elizabeth Wood and Mr. George Hardwick was solemnized Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Iven Wood, parents of the bride. The Rev. Percy W. Stephens, the officiating minister, made use of the full ring ceremony. The wedding was a pretty one and the Wood home near Pisgah was beautifully decorated for the occasion.

After the ceremony the guests enjoyed a three-course luncheon in the dining room and later in the afternoon bride and groom left for a brief wedding trip by the C. & A. for the east.

Two songs by Mrs. Roy Wilson of Decatur, a cousin of the bride, and a violin solo by Mrs. George McKean of Woodson preceded the ceremony and as Mrs. Albert E. Curry played the wedding march from Lohengrin, the bridal party took their places beneath a canopy of syringa and fern erected in the southwest corner of the parlor. During the ceremony Mrs. Wilson sang "I Love You Truly" and just afterward Mrs. Curry played the march from Mendelssohn and Mrs. McKean gave a violin selection. The pair were unattended, save for the two ribbon-bearers, Helen and Betty Ann Wood, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Wood.

White embroidered organdie made up the costume of the bride. Fastenings of pearl and rhinestone ornamented the sleeves and she wore a veil, caught up with orange blossoms, carrying a bouquet of bride's roses, lily of the valley and fern. The bride's going-away gown was of green silk poplin.

Bridal roses, fern and candelabra formed the table decorations and these were arranged in pleasing combination. The luncheon was well appointed and excellently served. Mrs. Charles Wood, Mrs. John J. Reeve, Mrs. Joseph Jackson and Mrs. Ella Wood poured the coffee.

Among the guests from a distance were: Thomas Hardwick of Merritt, father of the groom; Mrs. Simpson of Peoria, a sister of the bride, with her husband; Mrs. Wise of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wilson of Decatur, Mrs. Katherine Wood of Springfield, Mrs. Ella Wood of St. Louis and Mrs. Homer L. Wood and daughters of Los Angeles, Calif. Among the one hundred guests invited were many from Jacksonville and near vicinity.

The groom's gift to the bride was a handsome gold chain and many other presents were in evidence, acceptable remembrances from a host of friends.

The bride is a young woman of charm and talent, well worthy of the many good wishes showered upon her. She was born and reared in Morgan county and received her preliminary education in its schools. She later attended Shurtleff college at Alton, whence she was graduated with honor.

Mr. Hardwick has always made his home in Scott county, where for the past few years he has been engaged in farming. He is interested to considerable extent in the co-operative elevator recently formed at Merritt and is a man of ability and business acumen. Completing his course in the local schools, he went to Alton and for several terms was student at Shurtleff.

Mr. and Mrs. Hardwick will be a home to their friends after July 15 one half mile east of Merritt. They will occupy the old Hardwick homestead.

MORTUARY

Richardson.

Coke Richardson died yesterday at his home in Springfield aged about seventy years. Deceased was born and reared in this county in the vicinity of Salem M. E. church and was the son of Daniel Richardson. He was a schoolmate of Mayberry Walter, F. M. Morton and many of the elderly residents of the east part of the county. He leaves a wife, a niece of Squire J. B. Beckman of Pisgah, a son and a daughter. He was a cousin of the late John Richardson of this city and second cousin of Joseph Mann.

DEATH OF AUNT.

George H. Sewall, editor and proprietor of the Evening Press of Carthage, Mo., is in the city called by the death of his aunt, the late Mrs. Barnes. The gentleman was formerly editor of the Virden Reporter and is a live, wide-awake man. He gives a glowing account of his part of the country which is especially rich in zinc mines that have made many men wealthy and have given work to large numbers. Jasper county, no larger than Morgan, has 100,000 inhabitants.

EXERCISES POSTPONED.

The May Day exercises of the children of the Second Ward which were set for 9 o'clock Wednesday morning were postponed on account of the wet weather. It was hoped that they could be carried out later but this was impossible on account of some of the teachers wishing to leave the city.

DRAINAGE WORK GOOD.

Charles Martin of the northwest part of the county visited the city on business yesterday. He says the recent rains have filled the streams and the new drainage work along the Mauvaisterre is doing good work keeping the water within the banks and sending it down to the Gulf of Mexico in a lively manner.

SOCIAL EVENTS

Powers-Routzong

Wedding Next Month.

The wedding of James Powers and Miss Zella Routzong will take place Wednesday, June 30, according to announcement made last evening when Miss Georgie Melton, 113 North Church street, entertained a company of twenty-two friends. The evening hours were spent most pleasantly and news of the approaching marriage was conveyed to the guests in exceedingly clever manner. Candy hearts, hidden here and there about the house, furnished material for a merry search, and to her who found the most a prize was given. Miss Theresa Lonergan, winner to this hunt, received the token, a miniature suit case, tied with white ribbon and bearing within photos of the bride and groom-to-be.

In the dining room, where a dainty buffet luncheon was served, pink roses formed the decorations and parlor and living room were beautified with a profusion of garden flowers.

Music was among the principal diversions, varied by letter-writing, when friends of Miss Routzong, each and all, wrote down words of congratulation and advice for perusal after the wedding day. Those "letters to the bride" were enclosed in a small trunk, especially provided for the purpose. Among the guests were two from out of the city Miss Eva Beauchamp of Meredosia and Miss Ada Stoner of Pittsfield.

Miss Routzong is the daughter of Mrs. T. D. Switzer of Farina and for some five years has made Jacksonville her home. She attended Illinois college and was later bookkeeper for Cannon-Kelly. She at present holds a position as cashier for the Emporium. During her residence here she has formed many friends and all these will join in extending best wishes.

Mr. Powers is a son of Mrs. Sarah Powers and was reared in Jacksonville. He is engaged in the insurance business and has long been popular as an orchestra leader. He received his education in the city schools. A young man of excellent business qualifications, he has habits which make for success and is esteemed by all for unquestioned integrity.

TEAMS BEGIN CAMPAIGN FOR Y.M.C.A. SUBSCRIPTION

Sixty-four Subscribers Have Pledged $1,108.98 for Each of Two Coming Years.

An enthusiastic meeting was held yesterday noon at Y. M. C. A. headquarters and good progress was shown. Up to date $3,108.98 has been raised for each of the two coming years from 64 subscribers and of course but a beginning has been made.

The showing of the various teams and number of subscriptions was: Eb Spink's 17, $223.66. Ralph Dunlap's 4, $151.66. Carl Weber's 7, $53.00. Rev. W. A. Spoon's 22, $415.66. Dr. Kopper's 9, $140. W. B. Miser's 5, $123.00.

A great factor of the work is the splendid meals supplied by the ladies of Grace M. E. church and are enough to put everyone in good humor. The tables were fairly well filled yesterday and great enthusiasm prevailed and much progress was shown.

At the close of the meal Mr. Deerkake took his place at the blackboard and asked each team leader to name the amount he had received, the number of persons seen and any facts of interest and each result as shown above was recorded on the blackboard.

There were few experiences given. Mr. Spoon's said he called up Andrew Russell by long distance telephone and told him what was going on and the response was $100 a year. He said the solicitors had heard lots of tales of mortgages and various causes for hard times but none had absolutely refused and all the solicitors said they had been treated kindly.

INTERESTING DISPLAY AT WOMAN'S COLLEGE

Articles Produced in the Domestic Science and Domestic Arts Departments.

Any one who says young ladies are not trained in the useful arts of life should visit the display in Barker Hall at the Woman's college and see what the young students are accomplishing.

First comes the work under supervision of Miss Leicht, that of sewing, designing and kindred subjects. Arrayed about the apartment are dainty dresses and various garments cut and made by the young ladies who have manifested rare skill and originality in the work. Modeling of garments on figures is a fine art and in this the students also have some very creditable work, and they have drawn the same also. Several floor plans of houses show fine architectural skill and color schemes for the various rooms are shown and do much credit to the artists.

Proceeding thence to the domestic science department under Miss Walker one sees a display of unusual excellence, embracing all the good things which culinary skill can accomplish. Anything like a complete list is wholly impracticable but a few may be noticed. That peculiar looking object with its savory odor is a baked apple on whose surface almonds are ingeniously arranged. Orange sections are appetizing while various kinds of pies, corn starch molds, rice and a pie, bread, white and brown, biscuits, rolls and cakes all show that the oven has been used to good advantage.

All sorts of salads are prepared and temptingly arrayed. Banana shell salads, daisy, poinsetta, potato and lots of other kinds are shown there. Another unique exhibit is the quality of certain articles if takes to produce 100 units of heat. A piece of fat and lean pork is the smallest and a dish of lettuce is the largest while all sorts of articles come between. On a table are samples of jellies, canned fruits and vegetables and a great array of other dishes all making a very creditable display.

JURY SENT TO BED WITHOUT A VERDICT

FAILED TO REACH AGREEMENT IN DOWNS' CASE.

Jurymen Will Resume Their Deliberations This Morning at Judge Burton's Request.

When court convened Wednesday morning the Downs' case again occupied attention. The remaining testimony was given by Dr. J. M. Woulfe who prescribed medicine for Downs on the day of the killing and Drs. Albert H. Doller, Edward A. Foley and Edward Bowe. The last named appeared as experts on insanity and were asked a hypothetical question which would tend to show that Downs was not responsible at the time that he shot White.

The court room was again packed to the doors with a crowd which remained throughout the day. Despite the large crowd good order was maintained and the arguments of the attorneys and Judge Burton's instructions to the jury were given close attention.

The taking of testimony was completed about 10:15 o'clock. Paul Samuel then presented the first argument to the jury for the people. William N. Hairgrove followed for the defense. Mr. Hairgrove began shortly after 11 o'clock and at 12 o'clock asked the court to adjourn in order that he might read some points of law which he would have to bring from his office. At 1:30 o'clock Mr. Hairgrove again took up his argument. He made a strong plea to the jury for the upholding of the sanctity of the home. He pointed out man's inherent right to protect his home and said that without good homes there would be no country as homes were the foundation of the country. Mr. Hairgrove's plea was largely for justification of Downs' act under the unwritten law. Mr. Hairgrove spoke nearly two hours.

States attorney Tilton closed for the people. Mr. Tilton asked that the jury decide the case on the law and the instructions of the court. He argued that the jury should not be carried away by the eloquence of Mr. Hairgrove but should decide the case on its merits as the members had taken oath to do.

The instructions to the jury were then read by Judge Burton. They were quite exhaustive and occupied some time. The jury then retired to its room.

After remaining out until eleven o'clock the jury was unable to reach a verdict. Judge Burton remained up until that hour and then sent the jury to the hotel.
